Flurry of activity

Late winter and early spring are busy times for the San Antonio Chapter of the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC). On Feb. 20, members took part in the Block-Kids Building Program, which introduces children to the construction industry. On Mar. 6, members and guests kicked back and enjoyed the annual Wine and Cheese party to wrap up Women in Construction Week, Mar. 1-7. Finishing out the March activities, more than 70 members and guests gathered at the Petroleum Club for the annual Industry Appreciation Night with WOAI anchor Delaine Mathieu. -kf
